

Summer Retreat Day at
The Coach House, Kilmuir
Friday 27th July 2018

Led by Ian Bonner-Evans and

Ruth Flockhart

The day will start with coffee at 11.00 a.m and end at 8.30 pm after evening meditation.

The Coach House is a small retreat centre located near Inverness on the north-east side of the Kessock Bridge. Situated above the village of Kilmuir, nestling below beech woods, the house has spectacular views over the coastline.

There are lovely grounds to sit or wander in; a labyrinth; a beautiful sanctuary for quiet prayer and reflection overlooking the Firth to the hills beyond; a library; a sitting room; a creative/art room and walks in the woods or by the shore.

“The Coach House opened in 1992. The original vision, which still holds true today, was for a place where everyone would feel welcome and accepted; a safe place for individuals in which to explore questions about God, life, and themselves; a place in which to rest, be nurtured and restored.”

Catering by way of teas, coffees and a vegetarian* evening meal will be provided, but you are requested to bring your own packed lunch.

Cost for the entire day including evening meal is £28.
